

Read Write Inc:

Come along and be a part of an exciting Read Write Inc (RWI) workshop where you will hear about how Riverside School has become a flagship school for RWI with our very unique and personalised programme for our pupils.

The workshop will be very practical and give examples of how we teach very early sound skills, right through to skills in reading and writing.

Kirsty Finch and Daniella Costanza are Riverside School's very own RWI specialists and will be leading this session.

We are really looking forward to seeing you all there.
